

Trade Collect

TradeCollect can enhance your credit management and help reduce the cost of debt collection.

Exclusively available to Australian and New Zealand QBE Trade Credit policyholders[#]

The benefits of TradeCollect include

- 100% reimbursement of your debt collection fees on all overdue debts* placed with AMA Collection Services (AMA). Benefit up to $10,000 per debt.
- Streamlined process for provisional claim payments.
- In the event that the debt lodgement period has passed or if you prefer to use a different agency benefit from our 50% contribution to costs up to $4,000 per overdue debt which results in a claim being payable under your Trade Credit insurance policy. Refer to TradeLegals.

How TradeCollect works

- Lodge your debt with AMA within 21 days after your policy's maximum extension period (the debt lodgement period).
- Online access to AMA's portal to manage all matters relating to collection of your debts.
- Simply present QBE with the paid AMA invoices and a TradeCollect reimbursement form and QBE Trade Credit will reimburse you for all eligible debt collection fees.

Getting started

Contact either your insurance broker or QBE Trade Credit to see whether TradeCollect is available to you. If it is, a TradeCollect clause will be added to your trade credit insurance policy. AMA's Service Agreement will be sent to you. Signing and returning this will allow you to take advantage of the benefits of TradeCollect. AMA will contact you to discuss the collection process most suitable to you.

[#] The following products are applicable; Domestic Whole of Turnover, Aggregate First Loss/Excess of Loss, Major Debtor Cover & Export Whole of Turnover. Reimbursement is available for all your customers domiciled in Australia or New Zealand.

* At least 50% of each debt must be insured.

 Conditions apply as set out in the Policy wording and the TradeCollect clause available from your broker or directly from QBE Trade Credit.
